

APPLICATION FOR RECERTIFICATION

Please complete ALL sections of this application. Illegible or incomplete applications will be returned.

Do not include original certificates or other materials of personal value as they will not be returned. Copies of original documentation will suffice with the exception of official sealed college/university transcripts to document courses taken at the higher education level (if applicable). The UPPCC does not maintain supplementary documentation. Once an application is approved, all supplementary documentation is destroyed and only the application is retained.

SECTION II: TYPE OF RECERTIFICATION

PART A: Certification Program

Please indicate the certification(s) for which you are recertifying (check one application type):

CPPB Recertification

CPPO Recertification

Dual Recertification

NAME _____

PART B: Lifetime Status

➤ UPPCC Certified individuals in good standing who have reached the age of sixty-two (62) OR have officially retired after a minimum of fifteen (15) years of purchasing experience in the public sector are eligible to recertify under lifetime status. The UPPCC considers retirement for Lifetime Status as being retired from the procurement profession after fifteen years of full time employment whereby the individual had the responsibilities to perform essential functions within the purchasing cycle. Programs such as the DROP program offered by many jurisdictions whereby the employee continues to work in the procurement profession within the same organization do not qualify for the UPPCC Lifetime Certification Status.

Individuals applying for recertification under lifetime status are required to complete only Sections I, II, III, V & VI of this application. No recertification points are required to recertify under lifetime status. The applicant need only submit the application with the appropriate payment and documentation of meeting the age requirement (copy of a valid government issued i.d., certificate of birth, passport, etc.) OR provide documentation of his/her retirement and a minimum of fifteen (15) years of purchasing experience in the public sector. Once an individual recertifies under lifetime status, his/her new certificate will not expire. Individuals who have allowed their certification to lapse or expire are not eligible to recertify under lifetime status. Please indicate by checking the box below if this application is for consideration under lifetime status. There is no additional fee for lifetime status recertification.

I am recertifying under "lifetime status" and have included the required documents as indicated above.

SECTION III: AFFIRMATION STATEMENT

I affirm that the statements and information set herein this application are true and correct, and that any falsification or willful misstatements or omissions intended to mislead the Board of Examiners will forfeit my right to certification as a CPPB or CPPO. I further agree to abide by the UPPCC Code of Ethics. Any violation of the UPPCC Code of Ethics may result in the permanent revocation of the CPPB or CPPO certification.

Applicant's Signature: _____ Date: _____

SECTION IV: RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

➤ General Recertification Requirements - Current CPPOs are required to earn a minimum total of fifteen (15) points, while current CPPBs are required to earn a minimum total of ten (10) points in order to recertify. Combined total points must be earned in at least two (2) of the three (3) categories of the application. Those who recertify both certifications simultaneously as a dual recertification are required to earn a minimum of fifteen (15) points.

➤ The Recertification Period - Points to be used towards recertification must be earned during a specific 5-year time frame. Although certificants may file an application as soon as he/she meets the recertification requirements, points can only be earned during the current certification period. For example, if an individual is due to recertify by January 2009, but files an early recertification in July 2008, any activities the individual participated in between July 2008 and January 2009 could not be counted towards the next recertification cycle. The new certificate printed for this individual would be January 2014 and points for the next renewal date must have been earned between January 2009 and January 2014.

➤ Lapsed Status Requirements Additional points and fees are required for individuals who allow their certifications to lapse. Lapsed status refers to the period of time immediately following the expiration date of the current certificate and ending one (1) year following. Although lapsed certificants are not permitted to use the CPPO and/or CPPB certifications, they are still eligible to recertify. CPPOs in lapsed status and those recertifying under dual status when both certifications have lapsed must earn a minimum total of eighteen (18) points, while CPPBs in lapsed status must earn a minimum total of twelve (12) points in order to recertify. Combined total points must be earned in at least two (2) of the three (3) categories of the application. Once the one (1) year lapsed status has ended, the individual's certification is officially expired, the individual must retest within four (4) years to reinstate their certification. After five (5) years in expired status, re-application as a new applicant is required. While in lapsed status, the individual must discontinue use of the certification until at which time the expired certification is recertified or reinstated. The continued use of the CPPO and/or CPPB designation after the designation has expired is misrepresentation and may carry legal implications.

PART A: Continuing Education and Training

Points may be earned for attending purchasing conferences and meetings as a full-time delegate. Large national events such as NIGP Annual Forum include a product expo/trade show as part of the event. The UPPCC allows credit for trade shows held as part of larger events that include training. Trade shows, reverse trade shows, product expos, etc. held as individual events are not considered by the UPPCC for Recertification credit. Other events that you attend that include a tradeshow will qualify for recertification credit if there is no more than two (2) hours in an eight hour period that includes an expo, while the 6 remaining hours are devoted to educational programming. Points may also be earned by attending individual purchasing-related and non purchasing-related courses, meetings, seminars and training sessions. Documentation is required for all activities recorded in this section. Each eight (8) hours of classroom training earns one (1) recertification point.

PART D: Summary of Points

Total the number of points prior to submitting your application for UPPCC Recertification. Transfer the total points earned in each section to the Summary of Points table below and add all three totals together. Do not submit the application to UPPCC if you are short the required number of points. You may research upcoming scheduled educational opportunities available through our educational partners. UPPCC Educational Partners are listed on the Resource page of the UPPCC Website and includes links to each organizations website. You may consider taking a course to earn additional recertification points prior to submitting your application.

UPPCC Certified Professionals are required to recertify every 5th year following their initial certification. Combined total points must be earned in at least two (2) of the three (3) categories of the application. Current CPPOs are required to earn a minimum total of fifteen (15) points while current CPPBs are required to earn a minimum total of ten (10) points in order to recertify. Those who recertify both certifications simultaneously as a dual recertification are required to earn a minimum total of fifteen (15) points with the combined total points earned from two (2) of the three (3) categories. Additional points are required if the certification has lapsed. Individuals in lapsed or expired status should consult the current edition of the UPPCC Candidate Handbook for information.
